Introduction to diversional therapy practice

Date: Wednesday 7th February 2007
Time: 9am Registration; 9.15am Session 1; 4.15pm Close
Venue: Hornsby RSL
4 High Street, Hornsby NSW 2077
Parking: Available behind the RSL and in an adjacent dedicated car park (free of charge)
Public Transport: Hornsby RSL is in walking distance from Hornsby Train Station (5 minutes walk)

Workshop Description
The workshop will introduce participants to the profession of diversional therapy and provide them with an understanding of the key concepts and factors that impact on professional practice. Participants will develop a conceptual basis for practice in the area of diversional therapy.

Learning outcomes
- Demonstrate a commitment to the central philosophies of the diversional therapy profession.
- Explain the benefits of leisure and recreation and the provision of diversional therapy services
- Make effective use of professional networks

Content includes
- Principles of Diversional Therapy
- Concepts of Leisure and Recreation
- Client Choice and Motivation
- Role of the Diversional Therapist
- Programme and Activity Ideas
- Issues and Questions

Facilitator
Jacqueline Quirke
MCommHlth; GradDipCommHlth; AssDipAppSc(DT);
Certificate IV in Workplace Training and Assessment; Aged Care Assessor

Designed for
Those new to the profession of diversional therapy, people keen to enter the profession and practitioners who require a refresher course.

Relationship to modules from the Diploma of Diversional Therapy/Certificate IV in Health & Recreation
HR4-LAL-FDT7 Fundamentals of Diversional Therapy

For further information contact Redleaf College – P: 02 9924 0506; E: enquiries@redleaf.com.au; www.redleaf.com.au. A registration brochure is available from the Redleaf College website (subject to minor amendment without notification)